

Health Guarantee: Bernedoodle

This Health Guarantee is understood and accepted by both the Buyer and Seller regarding the below stated puppy. Buyer agrees to the terms in the said Health Guarantee. Seller's puppies are sold as companions/pets and NOT as Breeding or Show animals, unless otherwise specified in writing. Seller makes NO further guarantee; either expressed or implied other than the Health Guarantee that follows...

- Once the puppy leaves the Seller's premises, it is under the Buyers control and Seller is not responsible for any accidents and or Veterinarian expenses. If treatment is rendered it is at the Buyers expense.
- Puppies must be spayed or neutered by 1 year of age, and provide Red Barn Bernese with a photo and veterinarian receipt as proof.
- The puppy purchased is guaranteed against CONGENITAL and HEREDITARY defects up to the puppies first birthday. The buyer agrees to have puppy examined by a licensed veterinarian within the first week after purchase. Be sure to have the supplied shot record with you when you visit the Veterinarian.
- The puppy has been examined by a Veterinarian and has received the 1st vaccine. Buyer understands that the puppy needs boosters of the puppy vaccination, generally spaced three weeks apart. Seller is not responsible for any sickness/disease, etc. due to a non-vaccinated puppy. Seller is not responsible for any reactions caused by vaccinations.
- If Buyer's Veterinarian finds any CONGENITAL or HEREDITARY illness that would affect the ability of the puppy serving as a companion or is life threatening to the puppy, the Buyer must notify the seller IMMEDIATELY. A written statement from the attending Veterinarian, all lab results, test results, x-rays, and in the event of death of the puppy, the autopsy report must be supplied to the Seller. The Seller also reserves the right to have the findings verified by their Veterinarian of choice.
- If the Seller and the Buyer agree that the puppy is to be replaced-No replacement will be made until ALL medical findings and registration papers are returned to Seller. Seller at NO time will be responsible for Veterinarian expenses. A new puppy will be provided to the Buyer at no charge from the next available litter. If it is agreed upon by both parties that the puppy shall remain with the BUYER and that a new puppy is to be provided to the Buyers then Seller will replace the puppy at no charge from the next available litter.
- No Guarantees are made against Accidents, mortality, coccidia, size, weight, allergy problems, and/or etc....
- No refunds will be made because of Landlord disapproval or any other health or personal reasons other than those covered in this agreement.
- Guarantee is binding only to the original Buyer.
